

GENERAL EDUCATION COURSES THROUGH TEXAS TECH EXTENDED STUDIES

The following distance education courses through Texas Tech are acceptable for transfer credit in the Cogswell Degrees at a Distance Program. Many schools offer distance learning courses, but Texas Tech has a well-established program and its courses have been given generally good reviews by DDP students for more than a decade.

Contact information for Texas Tech is below.

Lower Division Requirements:

Cogswell Requirements	Acceptable Texas Tech Courses
Speech	COMS 2300 Public Speaking *
Technical Report Writing	ENGL 2311 Technical Writing
English Composition	ENGL 1301 Essential of College Rhetoric
	ENGL 1302 Advanced College Rhetoric
US History	HIST 2300 Hist. of the US to 1877
	HIST 2301 Hist. of the US since 1877
American Government	POLS 1301 or 1301(I) Am. Govt. Org.
Humanities	ENGL 2301 Literature before 1700
	ENGL 2302 Literature after 1700
	HIST 1300 Western Civilization I
	HIST 1301 Western Civilization II
	HIST 3339 History of Baseball: A Mirror on America
Social Science	ECO 2301 Principles of Economics (Micro)
	ECO 2302 Principles of Economics (Macro)
	HDFS 2322 Courtship & Marriage
	PSY 1300 General Psychology
	PSY 4305 Abnormal Psychology
	ANTH 2302 Cultural Anthropology
	SOC 1320 Current Social Problems

Upper Division Requirements:

Upper Division English	ENG 3326 The American Novel
	ENGL3389 The Short Story
Business Law	BLAW 3391 Business Law I
Public Administration	POLS2302 or 2302(I) Am. Public Policy

*access to a video camera required.

Texas Tech University
www.dce.ttu.edu
 1-800-692-6877
 1-806-742-7222 (fax)

Registration for courses is year-around.
 Tuition (2002-03) is $88 per semester unit
 plus a $25 processing fee per course.