

ACTIVISION:

http://www.activision.com/en_US/corporate/hr_main.jsp

- We have alum here!
- Internships are posted in the career section when available. Check back often for more opportunities

APPLE:

<https://jobs.apple.com/cgi-bin/WebObjects/Employment.woa>

- Internships can be found through Apple's search feature.
- To apply you need to create a profile with Apple which allows you to both submit and monitor your application throughout the process.
- Internships run throughout the year with full time and part time positions available.
- Type of work includes software engineering, human resources, and marketing.

CISCO:

<http://www.cisco.com/jobs/us/studentsic.html>

- We have an alum in charge of interns esackett@cisco.com
- To find internships, go to the job opportunities section of the site and search the keywords intern or co-op.
- Internship and Cooperative Education assignments are paid positions offered throughout the year and typically range from 3-6 months.

DIGITAL DOMAIN:

<http://www.digitaldomain.com/>

- Send applications each semester you would like to intern in order to keep your information current. Application should have your resume and demo reel if applicable.
- This internship does offer school credit.
- Internship runs for 12 weeks.
- Type of work includes Technical direction, 2d, 3d, software, and character animation.

DISNEY:

<http://disney.go.com/disneycareers/college/wdi/graduate.html>

- We have alum here!
- Internships for Junior and Senior level students and Graduates.
- Internships last from 3-6 months depending on the time of year.
- There is no specified deadline but positions fill quickly. Get your resumes and cover letters in as early as you can.
- Type of work includes software engineering, electrical engineering, graphic design, and creative development and design.

ELECTRONIC ARTS:

<http://jobs.ea.com/eaacademy/index.html>

- We have faculty from here and alum working there!
- There are internship opportunities year round.
- Follow the links for specific positions to apply.
- Send in resumes with demo reels and portfolios when applicable.
- Type of work includes computer graphics, software engineering, and production design.

FACTOR 5

http://www.factor5.com/main.php?tool=jobs&job=2d_artist

- We have alum here!
- 6 positions for spring '06 and they want Cogswell students.
- Internships are paid.
- Check the company job board for specific positions available.
- Type of work includes programming, 2d/3d art, and software engineering.

IBM:

<http://www-913.ibm.com/employment/us/extremeblue/>

- Technical Internship applications accepted year round.
- Applications available and submitted on the website using their form.
- Priority is given to applicants within 12 months of graduation.
- Type of work includes programming.

Hewlett Packard:

<http://www.jobs.hp.com/content/search/search.asp?Lang=ENen&location=1223&qt=internships>

- Must be pursuing education in a related field.
- To apply, you need to fill out a personal profile on the website.
- For positions available, use keyword "internship" using the search engine.
- Type of work includes software engineering, programming, and web design.

IDEO:

<http://www.ideo.com/careers/>

- Internships are listed when available along with application requirements under the internships link.
- Internships run from 3-6 months.
- Submissions should include resume, cover letter and portfolio.

ILM:

<http://www.ilm.com/internship.html>

- Must have an overall GPA of at least 3.0 and a GPA of at least 3.5 in the major.
- This is a paid internship.
- Internships available in the summer and applications should be turned in beginning in February and no later than March.

MICROSOFT:

http://www.microsoft.com/college/ip_overview.msp

- Paid internships including benefits
- Click on the “apply now” link for application instructions as well as email information. Submissions are taken via email and require a short statement about your goals and objectives as well as a resume and cover letter.
- Type of work includes software engineering and programming.

NVIDIA:

http://www.nvidia.com/page/intern_coop_programs.html

- Paid internships including assistance with travel and moving expenses.
- Application information and requirements listed on the website.
- Submit your application in Word, PDF, or text format to myfuture@nvidia.com
- Type of work includes software applications engineering, and hardware engineering.

The Orphanage:

<http://www.theorphanage.com/>

PDI:

<http://www.pdi.com/>

- Internship opportunities listed under the job opportunities link on the website.
- Internships available in the summer, spring, and fall.
- Summer Internships are paid.
- Fall and spring internships offer school credit.
- Internship runs from 10-12 weeks working 16-24 hours per week.
- Email resume and cover letter indicating area of interest to internships@dreamworks.com. Portfolios must be sent via mail.
- Type of work includes, animation, software engineering, and 2d tools engineering.

PIXAR:

<http://www.pixar.com/companyinfo/jobs/openings.html>

- We have alum here!
- Paid internships
- Internships available year round with specific positions listed under Internships on the career page.
- Summer internship deadline is March 31st.
- Type of work includes, modeling, animation, technical directing, software engineering and programming.

SGI:

http://www.sgi.com/company_info/employment/university/interncoop.html

- Paid internships.
- Apply online

SONY PICTURES/IMAGEWORKS:

http://www.sonypictures.com/corp/jobs_information.html

- They are interested in at least 1 Cogswell intern next summer!
- Both paid and school credit programs are available.

- Check the internships section under the job opportunities page for updated information.
- Apply online. Simply cut and paste your resume into the open application area and submit.

UNIVERSAL STUDIOS:

<http://corp.universalstudios.com/>

- Can earn school credit and get paid
- Internships available year round.
- Use the websites job search feature and enter Keyword “intern” for position information.
- Apply online.

For more specific internship openings, visit
<http://www.cogswell.edu/JobBoard.html>
or stop by the Job Wall outside Student Life.